

Attendee Registration Agreement for VLCM IT Seminars and Events

By completing my registration to attend I understand that my registration is subject to approval upon review by the event director. VLCM IT seminars and events are for business IT practitioners only and VLCM reserves the right to refuse registration.

VLCM will pay for the costs of the event meal, associated event activities, and event parking unless otherwise indicated on the invitation. VLCM is not responsible for any purchases by the attendee that are not pre-approved or related to the activity. Attendee is responsible for travel arrangements to the event and the costs associated with those arrangements. I waive VLCM of liability from any injuries, damages, loss, or costs incurred while engaging in any VLCM hosted event or activity.

Attendee registration and subsequent attendance to the event grants VLCM permission to interview, film, or photograph me and grants VLCM and its designees the right to use my likeness, voice, and/or quoted statements in photograph(s) and /or video in any and all of their electronic and print communications and/or advertising and in any and all other media, whether now known or hereafter existing, controlled by VLCM or its designees, in perpetuity, throughout the world, and for any other use by VLCM and its designees. I will make no monetary or other claim against VLCM or its designees for the use of the interview, photograph(s), and/or video footage.

I understand that my name, company, address, and contact information may be provided to VLCM and our trusted manufacturer partners for use 1) by VLCM sales associates as well as manufacturer partners for engagement purposes and 2) by VLCM and its designees with respect to name and company, in connection with the uses set forth above with respect to interviews, films and/or photographs. This agreement does not act as an opt-in for manufacturer partners automated marketing communications via email or text message. You can learn more about how we process and use your data from events at our event privacy policy, found here: <https://www.vlcm.com/event-privacy>.

VLCM reserves the right to change, amend, or reschedule any activity without prior notice. If changes to an event must be made, VLCM will do our best to provide timely notification of applicable changes to all registrants via email and telephone. VLCM will not be liable for any costs incurred by attendee for travel, or accommodations.

I acknowledge that many VLCM events include a giveaway or activity of value and that receiving any gift, prize, cash, etc. at any VLCM event does not imply obligation for myself, VLCM, or my company to conduct business at any time in the future. I hereby acknowledge that I will not accept any gift, prize, cash, etc., which does not comply with my company, city, state (or employer) policy.

VLCM takes careful measures to ensure that the information posted on pre-event material is accurate, but due to circumstances that include the collection of data from third parties external to VLCM we cannot guarantee its accuracy. If for any reason you wish to confirm event details or have any questions, please do contact VLCM either via email at events@vlcmtech.com or via telephone by dialing 800-817-1504.
